Hundreds visit Valley homes, shops on AFA Tour

Some were waiting early

One had only to look at the cars parked for hundreds of feet adjacent to any of the studios on the American Federation of Arts (AFA) Tour Saturday to know that it was an outstanding success.

At some places visitors were lined up fifteen minutes early, waiting for the doors to open at 11 a.m. Total attendance figures were not available, but receipts indicated that 425 stopped for the luncheon served at the Tantomount Theatre midway through the tour. Kudos to Mmes. and Messrs. Robert Work, Rutledge Bray, August Armanasco, Loren List Jr. and Donald Southard, who kept things running smoothly.

--Ginny Drew

MRS. PAUL HICKS (right), hostess for artist Jeanette Bedwell in Saturday's AFA tour, provides cover for her against the heavy spray which bathed the patio and walk to the studio. A water main had been severed at a house under construction across the street and a geyser shot 50 feet into the air, threatening to drench tour-goers for an hour or more.

MUTUAL FRIENDS -- Lee Ann Dahle and Egnogg (affectionately known as Sugar) successfully cooperated to bring home $22 from the Arabian Horse show recently in Monterey. Lee Ann rode Sugar bareback seated on a dollar bill while trotting and loping around the ring. Twenty-two competitors in the Dollar Bill Marathon lost their money while Lee Ann kept hers safe. Thirteen-year-old Lee Ann and her friend, Patsy Ballyntyne, spent the night before the show in the next stall to keep Sugar company and Sugar did her best to reward them. Lee Ann is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Ben Dahle.

Carmel church looks for trading stamps

The Church of the Wayfarer in Carmel is participating in what may well be the world's biggest stamp swap.

Aim of the campaign for 13,000 books of S & H Green Stamps is to provide a Cessna Super Skywagon for use as a flying ambulance by the Thomas A. Dooley Foundation in remote jungle areas of Laos.

County Planners ponder Lower Valley planlines for CV Road tomorrow

SALINAS--Monterey County planning commissioners have scheduled Thursday at 2:15 p.m. for a public hearing on action to rescind planlines established for a four-lane-wide Carmel Valley Road through Lower Carmel Valley.

The hearing was the result of a request by the Board of Supervisors after the board rejected four lanes for the road in the Upper Valley.

The planlines already set up are for the two-lane portion now running from Carmel Junior High School to Robinson Canyon Road.

Action by supervisors was prompted by a petition presented several weeks ago and signed by owners of the majority of property in the Lower Valley area.

The commission will also hear a request from Valleyite Paul Porter for a zoning permit to operate an animal hospital in Farm Center shopping center. The hearing is slated for 3:10 p.m.

On Thursday morning, the county's Board of Zoning Adjustment will consider applications for five separate Carmel Valley and Carmel building site requirements reductions, including one for Burchfiel Meadows' proposed condominium apartment development in Carmel Valley Golf & Country Club.

The apartment hearing is scheduled for 10:25 a.m. All hearings will be in supervisors' chambers in the County Courthouse in Salinas.

Other hearings and their scheduled times include:

--CARL HILDEBRAND, 9 a.m., two lots north of Carmel Valley Road adjacent to Hacienda Carmel.

--RALPH ERION, 9:10 a.m., South Bank Road near Hitchcock Canyon.

--WILLIAM JENSEN, Carmel, 9:35 a.m., Camino del Monte in Carmel Woods.

--GEORGE BECK, Carmel, 9:50 a.m., Rio Road. This application includes addition to the depth of Beck's lot.

A time and date will also be set for permission to build a guest house on Lloyd Swanson property on La Rancheria.

High Ord officer from Valley retires

FT. ORD--A Carmel Valley man with 24 years active duty service in the Army has retired as First Brigade executive officer here.

Lt. Col. I.W. Cundiff of E. Garzas Road, who lives with his wife Minlyn, plans to develop his Valley property and operate claims in Idaho.

A mining geologist and ore specimen mineralogist, Col. Cundiff received his commission through the ROTC program after his 1934 graduation from the University of Illinois. He was called to active duty with the outbreak of World War II when he served as battery commander and regimental S-4 with V Corps artillery.

In Korea, Col. Cundiff was senior advisor to the 22nd ROK regiment and third ROK Division. He was one of the first to reach the Yalu River in the United Nations forces' initial drive to the north.

He has been a military attache in Bolivia; PMST at Seton Hall University, N.J.; director of the Weapons and Equipment Test Department, Army Field Forces; commandant of the USAREUR Interrogation Center, and deputy commander of the 513th Intelligence Corps Group.

Light 4 cities San Francisco's size? A single PG&E plant will soon be powerful enough to do it!

Two new generating units, each more than twice as large as any now on the PG&E system, will soon bring the total generating capacity of Moss Landing Power Plant to over 2 million kilowatts.

That's slightly more than the capacity of all 71 plants in the company's system in 1948.

Though the amount of PG&E energy used in California is constantly going up, the unit cost is going down. Today a typical residential customer pays less than 30 years ago for the same amount of gas and electricity.

Which makes PG&E service a bigger bargain than ever.

Sheriff's BlotterDeputies warn man on illegal cable hookup

By REX PRYER
Outlook Correspondent

A self-appointed electrician who hooked his television set to a TV Cable Service cable here without subscribing was admonished not to make the same mistake twice by Sheriff's deputies.

The man, Lewis G. Lanning, 73 Poppy Rd., claimed the realtor who rented the house told him he could hook up for an extra five dollars rent.

The realtor replied that he had said nothing about hooking in by oneself. Besides, he added, Lanning doesn't even pay the extra five dollars.

The illegal hookup was reported to deputies by Victor Carp of Camp Steffani, owner of TV Cable. Carp also said Robert B. Haller, 40 South Bank Rd., was wired in without paying for the service.

Deputies checked and Haller denied knowing anything about the hookup.

OTHER CRIMES

Other minor violations were reported during the week on the Sheriff's Blotter. Included were:

SEVENTEEN gallons of gas siphoned from a car belonging to Jack Riskin of Daly City. Riskin said the thief broke a locked gas cap to get at the tank while the car was parked at Blue Sky Lodge, where he was staying.

AN ANONYMOUS call from a woman reported a man was shot during a fight in Hitchcock Canyon Aug. 5. Deputies said no other reports of the hassle were made, so they assumed the wound, if there was one, was not serious.

A MEXICAN laborer was reported "making trouble" at Odello Ranch, according to owner Emilio Odello. Deputies tried to question the man, Angel Ramirez, and when he refused to show any identification, they arrested him on a charge of not showing an ID.

A PROWLER was reported by Lois Henderson of La Paloma.

LITTERBUGS

TWO CASES of litterbugging were reported by Mary Shorey of Schulte Road. She gave deputies the license numbers of offending cars.

BEER CANS were scattered around Carmel Junior High School grounds Aug. 5 and wires were pulled loose from the engine of a tractor on the campus.

A MISSING German Short-hair Pointer colored dark liver was reported lost by Mrs. William Kellner. The dog is a two-year-old male.

UNDER THE OAKS AND AMONG THE CACTI

By MILDRED HATTAN

Friends conspired to drive Mrs. Peter Girard into Pacific Grove the other day where a surprise birthday luncheon had been planned by Mrs. Otts Anker at her home, 165 Sloat Ave.

Following luncheon, guests enjoyed an afternoon of bridge in the Anker's glassed lanai which affords a spectacular view of the bay. Surprising Emily Girard were Mmes. H.D. Haywood, Howard Vail, Ruth Holmes, Irene Baldwin, Gordon Brown, Gertrude Berry, and Art Hinnah.

ALL BOY

Cowboys and baseball was the "all boy" theme used at the fifth birthday party of Bobby Staples given last week at the Lower Circle home of his parents, Lt. and Mrs. Robert Staples.

Traditional birthday party refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and punch were served to Rory and Glen Lowe, Jeff Schench, Loren Davis, David McKenzie, Diane McKenzie, Jerry and David Nelson and Bobby's sisters, Debbie, Dee Ann, and Donna Sue.

BRIDGE

The Los Laureles Bridge Club meets every Tuesday evenings at Los Laureles Lodge under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Rudi Bautz. Winners last Tuesday were 1. Mr. and Mrs. John Van Laanen, 2. Mrs. Martha Vail and Mrs. Vivian Palmer, 3. Mr. and Mrs. C.T. Williams.

VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. George Jennings hosted members of their family from Muskegon, Mich. Among the eastern guests were Evelyn's mother, Mrs. Henry Anderson and her son, Carl; and Evelyn's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hansen, their teenage daughter, Marcia and her friend, Lana Krantz.

'KOFFEE'

Mrs. John Woods and Mrs. Robert Davis entertained with a "koffee" Thursday at the Davis home on Lower Circle, where goodbyes were said to Mrs. Richard Schenck.

The Schencks, with children Tere, Jeff and Gary, are leaving soon to make their home in Lancaster. Honoring Sharon were Mmes. Glen Lowe, Reginald Bennett, Joe Branco, Don Brill, William Nelson, Michael Carter, Mal Tavares, Harry Bixby and Herbert Reuter.

CARD PARTY

The "Purple Parlor" at the Carmel Valley Manor drew one of the largest gatherings for the monthly bridge and canasta party sponsored by St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church.

Hostesses welcomed ladies from all over the Peninsula. The attendance was so large that two residents of the Manor Mrs. Shannond Richmond and Mrs. W.L. Maxson graciously opened their homes to take care of those who were unable to be seated in the Parlor.

Mrs. Daniel Coleman, Mrs. Karl Kunz and Mrs. George Clifford were co-hostesses for the affair. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. William Satchell Sr. of Carmel, who took high in bridge, and Mrs. Phillip Walker of the Valley, who was high for canasta.

The August party will be given at the Lupine Lane and Ford Road home of Mrs. Richard McKenzie. Co-hostesses assisting her will be Mrs. Robert Staples and Mrs. Ned Sinclair.

BACK

Mr. and Mrs. Don Corona, 497 West Carmel Valley Rd., have returned from a vacation in Northern California. When the Coronas, accompanied by their three children, Terry, Donny, and Paul, left two weeks ago they drove to the mouth of the Valley and flipped a coin to see if their route would take them north or south.

Fate picked a very cold direction for the Valleyites, who found many camping sites at Mt. Lassen Park still closed by snow. The hike down to the sulphur pits called Bumpass Hell was made along a path with snow banks on either side.

A hailstorm sent the travelers to the warmer regions of Trinity Lake, from there to Silver Lake and then to Placerville for a week with friends.

SALE-O-RAMA

The annual Sale-O-Rama, a benefit for Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, was termed a huge success by committee members who worked on the two-day event.

The $325 taken in was particularly surprising since all merchandise was sold at half price. The half price sale will continue until further notice at the bargain spot at the church each Friday between 1 and 4 p.m.

There was a happy reunion at the Via Milpitas summer residence of Mr. and Mrs. H.O. Sand, when their son, John, and family arrived from two years duty in Athens, Greece.

Mr. and Mrs. Sand with their four sons, Eric, Toland, Christopher and Lee, will remain in the Valley until September at which time they will return to Athens where John will be reassigned to his government position.

The Sand family made their trip to the States via boat. They boarded ship in Greece, sailed up the coast of Italy, into France and from there to New York where they enplaned for the West Coast. John, who attended peninsula schools, is looking forward to seeing many old friends during their brief furlough.

LIONS FETE

Clyde Hitchcock and George Jennings represented the Carmel Valley Lions Club at a district luncheon held last weekend at the Riverside Inn in Santa Cruz. The meeting was to organize all new officers and appoint chairmen for district-wide committees.

Members of all Lions Clubs in the district were invited to the formal installation dinner to be held Aug. 21 at the Riverside Inn.

Why some men have several Wives

The drinking water supply for a certain rural community in southeastern Asia is nine miles away. The local custom decrees that the job of fetching the water belongs to the wife and since one wife can make only one trip to the wells each day, she cannot possibly fetch enough water for a family's needs. Therefore the men of this community find it necessary to have several wives.

The source of water supply for the Monterey Peninsula is the Carmel River. Peninsula wives are privileged to go to the river every day if they wish and fetch all the water they want. But there is no need for any of them to do this because we do the job of fetching for all the wives in the region. We gather the water which flows off the watershed into the river, we store it, we bring it down from the mountains, purify it, filter it, and finally deliver it to every home. For this service we charge a nominal price — and that price, of course, must be sufficient to cover the full cost of the service and permit efficient fetching.

Well, like the rest of the nation I take my cues from TV — hence the re-runs! But here I am again slightly frazzled around the edges but still functioning.

This week a few words on garbage disposals. Only about 70% of the buying public has this convenience in their homes, yet it is one of the cheapest to buy and install, gives the least trouble for the amount of use it gets, and is an all around handy gadget to have in the kitchen. A lot of people I talk to are worried about their septic tanks. General opinion is that disposals tend to plug up the systems, but according to the experts the residue from a garbage disposal is good food for the bacteria, much better than the detergents from your washer. They stipulate that the tank size should be increased by one person.

A personal observation — All the engineering reports I have read are about top line models, and Waste King makes as good a unit as I have seen yet. There are a few small companies that build as good or even better, but distribution is small and parts are difficult to get for them. Anyway, Waste King makes six models. The difference in models being type of cutters, size and type of material, capacity, size of drain, type of insulation and quality, size of motor, type of bearings, switching, etc. The life expectancy is around seven years. To repair one is rare. As a rule it's cheaper to replace with a new unit unless it is under five years old. A word of advice, never put anything into a garbage disposal unless it is running, never turn it off till it is empty, always use lots of water. This kind of service could put me out of business.

Questions concerning appliances may be sent via post card or letter to Bob's Corner, Bin CC, Carmel Valley.

School district hires 22 new teachers, administrators

Twenty-two new teachers, a principal and two assistant principals will join the staff of the Carmel Unified School District when classes resume on Sept. 7.

David W. Erskine of Mountain View has been named principal of River School. Erskine, who received his M.A. at University of California, Berkeley, has been in public school instruction and administration for 15 years.

Henry F. Chapple of Sunnyvale who has been named assistant principal at Carmel Middle School (formerly Carmel Junior High) comes to Carmel from Los Altos Elementary School District with 15-year experience in public schools. He received his M.A. from Arizona State University, Tempe. Both Chapple and Erskine are married and have four children.

Ross Evans, appointed assistant principal of Carmel High School, also comes to the Peninsula from Mountain View. He received his M.A. from Stanford and has 12 years experience, the last seven of which have been in the Fremont High School District at Sunnyvale. Evans is also married and has one daughter.

The new teachers come from a variety of places and backgrounds. Four new teachers have been hired for Carmel Valley's Tularcitos School.

Mrs. Barbara Wilson will teach Kindergarten in the Valley. She has her B.S. from Washington State University at Pullham, Wash., and has taught kindergarten for seven years. She has been living in Pacific Grove but indicated she was moving to the Valley this summer.

Miss Jacqueline Willette of Alameda will teach first grade at Tularcitos. She received her B.A. from Western Washington College of Education at Bellingham and has had nine years teaching experience. For the past year she has taught at Livermore.

Mrs. Peggy Mervine of Carmel Valley will be a teacher in science at Tularcitos. She has her B.S. from Jacksonville University in Florida and has taught for the past 1 1/2 years at Great Bridge Junior High School in Chesapeake, Va.

Miss Mary James of Ossining, N.Y., will be teaching fifth and sixth grade language arts at Tularcitos School. She has her M.S. from Yeshiva University in New York City and has taught for the past four years at grade school level in Ossining.

Fred Pomeroy will return to the Valley school after a year's sabbatical leave spent studying in France.

Carmel River School will have two new second grade teachers. Mrs. Susan Estes who comes to Carmel from three years of primary teaching in San Francisco, where she received her B.A. at San Francisco State College.

Miss Dixie Arter of San Francisco also received her B.A. from San Francisco State College and will teach second grade at River School.

Miss Carol Smage from Grosse Point, Mich., will have third and fourth grade combination at Woods School. She has been teaching for the past three years in the East Detroit School District and has her B.A. from Michigan State University at East Lansing.

Mrs. Jane Roman from the Point Sur Naval Facility will also teach a third and fourth grade combination at Capt. Cooper School in Big Sur. She has her B.S. from Old Dominion College in Norfolk, Va., and has taught parttime in Norfolk for two years.

Carmel Middle School will add six new teachers to its staff.

In the language division, Miss Judy Spruell, who has her B.A. from University of California at Santa Barbara, will teach Spanish. She has just completed a year of graduate study at the UC-Berkeley campus.

Alan E. Oppenhuizen, who received his M.A. from University of Colorado at Boulder, has been director of Modern Language House at the University for the past two years and will teach French.

Mrs. Janet Hurley of Monterey will be a leave of absence replacement for Mrs. Ken White in girl's physical education at the Middle School. She has her B.A. from Sacramento State and has 11 years experience.

Miss Linda Thompson of Harrisburg, Pa., will teach fifth and sixth grade science and math. She has her B.S. from Bucknell University at Lewisburg, Pa., and has taught overseas for the past four years.

Most recently in Yokoto, Japan, she taught in Libya and Scotland for three years prior to that assignment.

Barry Lastinger from Tallahassee, Fla., will be another new science teacher at the Middle School. Educated at Florida State University, he has five and a half years of teaching experience. For the last three years he has been at Sarasota Junior High in Florida.

Mrs. Dolores Dresser of Monterey, who taught typing last year at the Middle School, will return on a parttime basis and Thomas Cloud, who has been on sabbatical leave, will also be back this fall.

Seven new teachers will be added to the staff at Carmel High School.

Michael Williams of Berkeley will teach English under the graduate teaching internship program supervised by University of California at Berkeley, where he received his B.A.

William Stone of Campbell, who also has his B.A. from Berkeley, will teach art at the high school. He has been associated with Campbell Union High School District for the past four years.

Michael Olivas of Reno, Nev., will teach Spanish and coaching. He has his B.S. from University of Nevada at Reno.

Coming from Wichita, Kan., where he has taught for three years in the junior and senior high schools, James Kennaday will teach physics at Carmel High. He received his M.A. from Kansas State Teachers College at Emporia.

Wallace W. LeValley, who has done graduate work at San Francisco State and taught in San Francisco, will teach both English and journalism.

Monty Feekes of Arcata received his M.A. from Humboldt State College in that city. He will teach history and driver training at the high school.

Miss Patricia Rynerson of Bellevue, Wash., had been teaching at South Salem High School for two years prior to getting her M.S. this year at Oregon State University at Corvallis.

She will teach biology at Carmel High School.

General Information

Carmel Unified School District is a 595-square mile area extending from Jamesburg on the East to Big Sur on the South, the ocean on the West, and the boundary of Carmel Woods on the North. It presently contains six neighborhood elementary schools, an intermediate school (Sunset) for 5th and 6th graders, a junior high school housing 7th, 8th and 9th grades; a senior high school containing 10th, 11th and 12th. Exceptions to these grade locations will be noted under the separate schools.

The CUSD participates in the Monterey Peninsula Junior College district, so that qualified students beyond the high school level are eligible to attend MPC without charge.

Additional courses for college credit are obtainable through the Evening Division of MPC, and enrichment and recreational courses for adults are given both there and in the Adult School at Carmel High.

KINDERGARTEN

Children expecting to enter Kindergarten this fall must be five years old by December 2, 1964; first graders must be six by that date, whether or not they have completed a Kindergarten year. Registration for youngsters who did not pre-register last spring will begin August 31 between the hours of 9-12 and 1-4. All those below high school age should be accompanied to register by their parents who will be asked to sign programs and fill out a medical history for the child, giving dates of childhood diseases, operations or disabilities, and immunizations against smallpox and polio. A birth certificate or other documentary evidence of birth date is required only for those entering school for the first time. All California school children must have had a first injection or dose of oral vaccine against polio to be admitted.

garters are urged to place their children's names on the list at the proper school immediately, as children will be admitted to class in order of application if there should be a shortage of places.

TRANSFERS

School authorities appreciate a report card or promotion certificate from the former school district, except for high school students whose records will be requested directly from the previous school by Carmel High.

Local students who were part of the school system last year will receive their schedules in the mail and should report for class visions. Sixth graders from Carmelo district are bussed in to Sunset School on San Carlos Street at Ninth.

Students living west of Highway One and south of Ocean Avenue attend River School for grades K-4; grades 5 and 6 go to Sunset. Also in the River School district is approximately the southernmost third of the Pebble Beach area. North of Ocean and east of Highway One is the Woods School (Dolores and First) district for K-4; grades 5 and 6 attend Sunset.

Palo Colorado School on Highway One below Palo Colorado Road takes in the area south of Carmel Highlands (Highlands youngsters attend River) to the Point Sur Naval Facility, and includes grades 1-6. Children living at the Naval Facility and farther south attend Captain Cooper School in Big Sur, also from grades 1-6.

Bus schedules will be set up close to the opening of school, and will be included in a later issue.

Board asks fence around CV Airstrip

Carmel Unified School District trustees voted at their meeting last Wednesday to ask the California Aeronautics Division to direct owner Peter Delfino of Carmel Valley airport to fence the airfield.

The board, in a 3-1 vote with Trustee Hilton Bialek dissenting, also voted to request that student pilots not use the airport for landing practice during school hours.

'On the edge of breakthroughs'

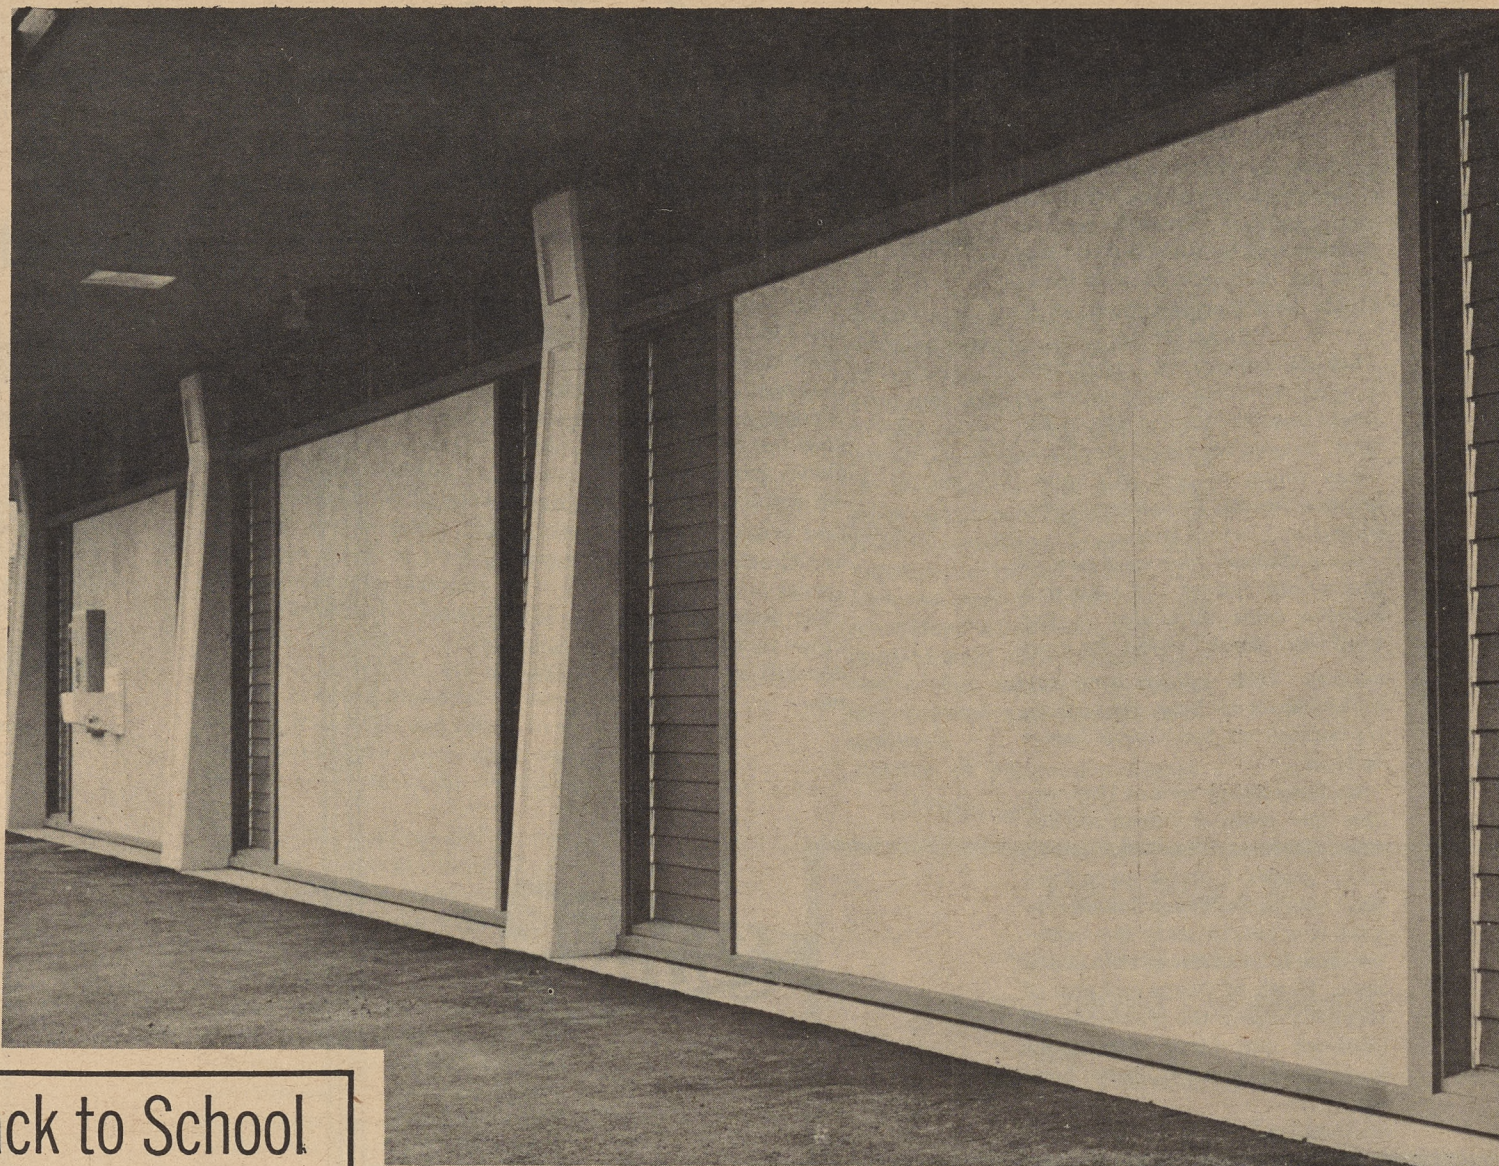

MONTEREY -- The new science of molecular biology stimulates "a feeling that we are on the very edge of breakthroughs which will make our past discoveries look small."

This is the opinion of William C. Isaacs of Carmel Valley professional sales representative of Pfizer Laboratories of New York.

Isaacs, speaking to the Monterey Peninsula Junior Chamber of Commerce, said the science--which probes into the chemical basis of cell life and reproduction--has given researchers new leads into the difficult areas of birth defects and cancer.

"It raises the possibility that in the future we may be made immune not just to specific virus diseases but to many different kinds of viruses with but a single treatment," Isaacs noted.

This possibility is not too distant, he added, because, for example, "about 70 per cent of the drugs in use today were not known 15 years ago,"

Horne in on development

A Carmel Valley soil scientist has developed a product that may mean the end to health hazards and heavy costs that plague people who depend on home septic systems for their sewage disposal.

Fred F. Horne of Carmel Valley directed the research and development of the product called Ortho Septic Seep, formulated by the California Spray Chemical Corporation.

It is a liquid which is poured down a sink drain, at a rate of one cupful a week for the average-sized septic system and acts to condition the soil in the drainage field so it will readily absorb the waste water that flows into it.

Board meets

CARMEL--Carmel Unified School District's board of education will meet in executive session this afternoon in Supt. Medill Bair's office at 4:30.

No specific topic for discussion was announced for the closed meeting, but a notification bulletin said the board would "discuss personnel matters."

rector Clyde P. Barnett of the California Aeronautics Division from Sacramento, had discussed the concern of the Tulare PTA about flying from the field.

John Sigourney of the PTA told the board and Barnett that he thinks "there is a great danger there." The discussion resulted from a letter from some nearby residents and the PTA about possible hazards from airplanes using the field.

Barnett pointed out that the airport existed before State legislation passed airport regulations and that it is one of 1,800 airports which can operate as they are, because of exemption by the "Grandfather clause."

Sigourney charged that there have been incidents when police have to stop drunk flyers from taking off and that pilots don't always use the designated flight pattern which avoids the school.

Barnett commented that the authorities, given the number or sufficient description of an offending airplane, could prosecute in case of violations.

Barnett also pointed out that the airport existed before the school and that if Sigourney wanted to be "hard-nosed" about it, then "you made the mistake in putting the school there."

He defended the airport, saying that today a school would not be permitted that close to the airport, not because of hazard but because of noise. He also suggested the trustees educate the children not to walk across the runway.

Sigourney added that Supervisor Tom Hudson favors taking the airport into the Monterey Airport Dist., which would offer the possibility of land condemnation for enlargement.

Who's responsible for homework? It's a shared duty, says new Carmel district leaflet

A leaflet on homework published by the Carmel Unified School District provides a clear discussion of what is expected of the student in relation to the homework he is assigned at the various grade levels.

In his introductory letter to parents, Superintendent Medill Bair states that the homework policy is based on four basic principles.

First: It recognizes that quality rather than quantity is the basic factor in the assignment of homework to pupils by the teachers.

Second: It recognizes that to be effective, the student, the parent and the teacher must assume certain basic responsibilities on a regular basis.

Third: It recognizes that homework assignments must be simple and short at the primary level, moving gradually and consistently toward a point where they become more lengthy and complex.

Fourth: It recognizes that the time allotments in this policy represent guide lines only. For a variety of reasons, the time required will vary from student to student.

Homework activities must therefore be planned to meet individual needs, according to the leaflet, since it is impossible to list the time to be spent by all pupils at any given age level. Students vary in interest and skill from one unit of work to another.

The amount of time which may be spent on homework will

must be assumed for homework:

By teachers:

- to encourage homework that is meaningful and useful to the individual,
- to allow initiative in the student's approach to his assignments,
- to favor continuing interest in learning,
- to help students in learning to become increasingly effective in use of time devoted to independent study.

By parents:

- to provide a suitable place for study,
- to help the pupil develop systematic home-study habits,
- to show an interest in the work being done,
- to make possible experiences that would add interest to learning.

By students:

- to understand and record the directions for homework,
- to follow a schedule and keep materials in order,
- to put creative effort into work,
- to hand in on time neat, accurate, and meaningful products.

vary from one project to another and will increase as the student develops competence and desire for knowledge. It is suggested that the following be considered maximum time necessary for homework in each age group.

Six and seven-year-old children: not over 15 minutes, three nights a week.

Eight and nine-year-old children: not over 30 minutes on any night.

Ten and eleven-year-old children: not over 45 minutes on any night.

Junior high students: not over 1 1/2 hours in grade seven to 2 1/2 hours in grade nine on any night.

Senior high students: not over 3 hours on any night.

The leaflet further reminds students that time must be planned for completing long-term assignments. Procrastination results in an excessive amount of time needed on a given night for completing the work.

Homework assigned before a weekend should require only the usual time for one night, and vacation should be a time for relaxation.

Carmel School District trustees lowered the tax rate 4¢ at their budget meeting Wednesday, from $2.57 to $3.53 per $100 assessed valuation.

Royals

Some mothers say we make too big a fuss over fitting children's shoes!

Our 71 years experience tells us we don't!

Think about fit . . . then think about your child's foot. We've been doing exactly that since 1894. That was the year Mr. Kinney sent his first class of children back to school. Since that time we've developed Kinney's famous "Certifit" Program where we measure both feet from heel to toe, then recheck to assure perfect fit. Fit is only half the story . . . Kinney's Educator Royals are the sturdy shoes people talk about when they say "they're outgrown before they're outworn"! That's because we fuss so much about materials and craftsmanship. Little wonder we guarantee every pair of Educator Royals we sell! $5.99 to $7.99.

'Cal--a huge diversity of just about everything'

Smith, Berkeley sophomore, likes MPC class better

Cal. is a huge diversity of just about everything, declares Andy Smith.

Andy is a sophomore at Berkeley. This summer he is helping his parents, the James Smiths of the Thunderbird Shop move into their new bookstore in Pebble Beach. He is also taking English 1B at the Monterey Peninsula College.

Andy says he enjoys his class at MPC better than English 1A at Cal because "there is more contact with the professor." He finds that student-teacher contact at Cal is between the student and teaching assistant rather than student-prof.

"But the T.A.'s are on the whole conscientious," he reports. T.A.'s are encountered when large lecture classes are broken down into smaller T.A. led discussion groups.

Andy began his university career in Cal's College of Engineering but found the program there "too nicely pre-planned." He wanted to take more humanities courses and has changed to a bio-physics major.

The U.C. 120 piece marching band is Andy's main extra-curricular interest. He plays clarinet. Last year they gave concerts in Seattle and Los Angeles. This year, without Andy, the bandmen are on a 6-week tour of the U.S. and including the World's Fair.

In commenting on Cal. publications, Andy admits to liking the Pelican, the humor mag, "Although we make lots of derogatory remarks about it." He calls the Daily Californian which averages 12 pages, a very good paper and also enjoys the literary mag, The Occident, which comes out twice a year.

The Associated Students of the U. of Cal. support the band, publications and other student activities. And each of Cal's many living groups are represented in the student government.

Andy feels that last fall's Free Speech Movement "helped overcome student apathy," citing the fact that the spring student body elections had an exceptionally large voting turnout. "F.S.M. has also provided Cal students with endless material for conversations and debates. The Free Speech Union hasn't had time to get going yet but it will, probably as a party in the student government," Andy prophesies.

Cal students live in many different living groups: apartments, boarding houses, co-ops., dorms, fraternities and sororities. Andy lives at the second largest co-op in Berkeley, with 149 other men who work five hours a week doing such chores as washing dishes, painting and gardening as part of their rent.

Andy likes this arrangement. "It's half way between a dorm and fraternity," he feels, as co-op members really get to know each other well by working together.

Big Week, the week before the Cal-Stanford game, is the high light of Cal's fall semester. The Big Game is the last game played each season and the week before students entertain themselves by playing practical jokes on each other. "Cal won the 'War' last year by stealing a bell from Stanford's Hoover Tower and after painting it blue and gold they kindly returned it. Stanford Rally cards were also taken by Cal students as a trade for Cal's victory cannon which Stanford students had stolen. The rally cards were finally returned with "compliments of Cal Rally Committee" printed on each one.

Friday night a monster bonfire is held in Cal's Greek Theatre and next day the week's activity is climaxed by the Big Game.

Comparing his short experience at MPC with life at Cal, Andy has decided that although the teacher-student relationship is closer at Monterey, Cal offers an awful lot more than a Junior College can...such as the fun of co-op living and membership in a nationally known band.

Gem, Mineral members to enjoy annual corn roast here Sunday

The third annual corn roast of the Carmel Valley Gem and Mineral Society will be held Sunday, August 15th.

Supervised by Cal Keator, the club's vice president, "Cal's Corn Capers" will be situated in beautiful Carmel Valley near the water filtration plant. Games, good food, and fun galore is the annual menu.

Of special interest to rockhounds will be the auction of the rock collection of the late Mrs. Vera Boje, of Monterey.

The members will bring their own picnic lunches, dishes, and silverware. The roast corn, cups and beverages, coffee for the adults and lemonade for the youngsters, will be furnished by the club.

A short business meeting will be held before the corn roast. This meeting will take the place of the regular second Friday of every month evening meeting.

The gates are open at 2 and the corn is served at 5. Club members and their guests are invited.

Subject To Offer

Located in the prestige Los Ranchitos area where 3 acre parcels are the minimum site requirement and there thrive some of the most spectacular of our great old oaks, one of the finest homes built in recent years is going to some lucky bidder for much less than replacement cost.

A handsome white stucco and brick ranch style home, built for a very particular owner only three years ago with great care and attention to detail, we can't see how this 3 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath home could be replaced for less than $68,000. Add a swimming pool which is heated and filtered, patios and landscaping. Add the lot value (two similar parcels down the way are priced at $36,000 each) and you'll find your own appraisal, like ours, way over $110,000.

This property must be sold immediately to settle an estate. Can you afford NOT to see it and make your bid?

Arab history, culture told to Kiwanis

History and culture of the Arabic nations was topic of a talk to Carmel Valley Kiwanis Club last week by Prof. Kamil Said of the Defense Language Institute.

Robert J. Ziener explained activities of the "Write Your Congressman" Club at the previous meeting.

A plea for contributions to help finance new dressing rooms at the Community Pool was made by Tom Verga. He pointed out that only $1,600 in pledges have been received towards the goal of $4,000 from local people, to match the $4,000 gift of the Crosby Foundation.

Kiwanis contributed $50 to the project.

Lady's Night is scheduled next week, August 17, at Prince's Camp.

NEW ORGAN FOR CV CHURCH

An organ of over a thousand pipes was delivered this week to the First Baptist Church of Carmel Valley by the Wick Organ Company of Highland, Ill.

Installation will probably be complete by the end of August and a dedication concert is planned for early September, according to Dr. Sal Di Mercurio, chairman of the church music committee.

The congregation, now making do with a small Baldwin electronic organ, has been looking forward to the new instrument for the last two and a half years. Robert Webb is their organist with Mrs. Martha Swenson as alternate.

Charles Clark and Pieter Visser from Los Angeles are overseeing installation to suit the voices of the pipes with the acoustics of the church sanctuary.

The shortest pipe has a "speaking length" of 1/8 of an inch and the longest is 18' tall, Dr. Di Mercurio explained. The pipes will be exposed in front of the church while the peddle division will be installed in the balcony. The organist will play from a console in the choir area.

Children to star in play

The drama class of the Carmel Unified School District summer recreation program will present a narrative fairy tale of songs and dances, entitled "The Magic Fishbone," this weekend. Performances will be at 8:30 Friday, August 13, and Saturday, August 14, at the Forest Theatre. Admission is 25¢ for children under 12 and 50¢ for adults.

Gail Dowling, of Carmel, who is a speech and drama major in her senior year at Fresno State, has directed the play and designed sets and costumes. She has been assisted by Nancy Davis, who is a student of U of C at Santa Barbara.

Children in the production

THE "BOW-OUT" or curtain call for youngsters participating in the production of the "Magic Fishbone" indicates the number of children who were part of the drama class sponsored by the Carmel Unified School District summer recreation program. The play will be given at the Forest Theatre on Friday and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

range in age from 5 to 14 years and each child plays many roles, skeletons, functionaries, doctors, and others. The play is adapted from Charles Dickens by Hanz Josef Schmidt.

Playing King Watkins is Jeff Walker and the Queen is Kathy

Fischer. Mr. Pickles is Mark Brown and Mr. Pickles' Boy is Carolyn Walker. The Fairy Grand Marina is portrayed by Dawn Beck-Meyer, Peggy the maid by Leslye Weinfield, and Princess Alicia, who is the major character, by Nina Albert. Alison Work is the Duchess and "Prince Certainpersonio" is Bruce Brown.

Dancers are Sherree Ratch, Kathy Tweedy, Pam Peckam, Gail Fischer, Joe Albert, Kathleen Walker, Becky Walker, Terri Shefik, Susan Work, Glynis Beck-Meyer, and Jessica Bryant.

Various princes and princesses are played by Deborah Tweedy, Connie Filabek, Terry Speer, Lisa Porcht, Cindy Lewis, Patrick Cummings, Kenny Covington, Robert Shefik, Regan Beck-Meyer, Lucy Aranda, Anna Aranda, Julie Brown, Liz Yohman, Susie Grinstein and Marilyn Tweedy. Glynis Beck-Meyer plays the Peacock.

350 members strong

Woman's Club enters 40th year in Carmel

Carmel Woman's Club, 40 years young and 350 members strong, is looking forward to an active year ahead.

Although the first general meeting will not be until October, the board is already hard at work on programs and projects for the forthcoming season.

Mrs. Alexander W. Cleary and Mrs. Rhea Diveley, with the assistance of Dr. Albert Rappaport of the Town Hall of San Francisco, have been able to procure a group of varied speakers beginning with the return engagement of John Morley, the news analyst who provided much information on current events last year.

Throughout the years since its inception in 1925 the club has taken an active part in the welfare of the community. During the depression years, various sections, garden, bridge, ect. contributed funds for the unemployed and with the aid of some beautified sections of Carmel by planting shrubs block by block.

They also, in 1932, donated the sundial for the Harrison Memorial Library Garden, as well as top soil and plants for same. A Rainy Day Cupboard was maintained for the indigent during these hard times and later during the war years the club purchased war bonds and also coordinated with the American Red Cross.

There have been many other projects supported by these civic-minded women.

Last year a fashion show was held with the proceeds going to the Carmel Youth Center and the Girl Scouts. The club is not resting on its laurels of past years, however, but going ahead with several different new projects for the coming season.

The Carmel Woman's Club is an entirely non-profit, non-political and non-sectarian organization whose projects, as stated in the by-laws, are "mutual help, intellectual advancement, social enjoyment and united effort for the welfare of the community. Its members now comprise of women who reside not only in Carmel but in various areas of the Monterey Peninsula, including some 50 from Carmel Valley.

Kids' Play Day horse show produces results here

Porter show, 'Can-Can,' opens here

The third in the summer series of musicals presented by White Oaks Theatre is Cole Porter's "Can-Can." It opens tomorrow night, August 12, and will play Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings through September 5.

This production is directed by Tom Gruenwald who was responsible for the excellent presentation of "Oklahoma!" which opened the season.

Choreography will be by Gale Peterson, musical direction by Chris Nance, costumes by Jim Swain and sets and lighting by Joan Larkey.

The musical which brings to life the bawdy, humorous life of Montmartre, features many familiar hit songs such as "It's All Right With Me," "I Love Paris," and title song, "Can-Can."

Curtain is at 8:30 and reservations may be made by calling the theatre at 659-2248.

Valley lass in Ord show

FT. ORD--A Carmel Valley miss will sing of the American scene in the International Show Saturday at Ft. Ord Service Club 1.

A student at Fresno State College, the young actress, Roselle Weinfield, has been active in many Ft. Ord Players productions.

All members of the military and interested civilians are invited free, a Ft. Ord spokesman said.

Outlook LEISURE TIMES

COLE PORTER'S MUSICAL "Can-Can," which opens Thursday at White Oaks Theatre, features Mary Pattie in the role of Pistache and Robert

Davis as Aristide. Mary has been seen as Meg in the current production of "Brigadoon," and Robert took the part of Curly in the season's opener, "Oklahoma!"

Entry blanks are being distributed now for the 10th annual Trail and Saddle Club horse show which will be held Sunday, Sept. 5.

The public is invited to enjoy the events which start at 9 a.m. A grand entry parade is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. The show will feature registered horse classes including some of the Arabians from the Monterey show.

A steak barbecue and outdoor dance will "kickoff" the event the night before at the Trail and Saddle Club grounds. Members have tickets available to the public.

St. Dunstan's
Bible School
to start here

St. Dunstan's Episcopal Church will hold their summer Bible School, beginning August 16, every weekday from 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon for two weeks. Worship, crafts, Bible study, recreation and refreshments will be scheduled each day. Any child eligible for grade school in the coming year is welcome. A registration fee of $2.00 is required for the two weeks of instruction.

This year's course is entitled "The Household of Faith," and will consist of the review of the lives of the Saints, the meaning of Christian baptism and the beginning of the Christian church in the New Testament. A high point in the school will be the construction of miniature shields representing the various Saints of the Church.

LITTLE LYRIC
SLATES PLAY

The Little Lyric Theatre of Big Sur, which is in its second year, under the direction of Gene Perrine, will present "King Arthur and the Saxons," an operetta or cantata by Henry Purcell. Performances will be on Sunday, August 29, at 7:30, and Tuesday, August 31, at 2 p.m., in the Big Sur Grange Hall.

Valley children who are participating in this year's workshop are Greg and Peter Granoff, Chet, By and Christi Cordrey, Michelle and Gary Holmes, Susie and Sarah Gay Senger, Gregg and Leslie Drew, Alba Arboleda, Tegan Speiser, Peter Savoldi, Karen Stone and Susan McCabe.

Last Thursday after a long day of rehearsal, the youngsters were treated to a pink lemonade party at Nepenthe. Art director Bob Skiles, who works on lighting and sets with the children, also joined the party.

The Valley at LARGE

Comings and goings of people you know...

By GINNIE DREW

The cocktail party and dinner dance held for members and guests at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club brought a gala group from both the Peninsula and the Valley. Seen at dinner in the main dining room were Mr. and Mrs. Rod Wilson and their daughter, Nicki, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ferguson and their daughter, Johanna. The lounge was crowded with party goers: Mmes. and Messrs. John Lohman, Morden Buck, Norman McPhee, John Beesley, Webster Downs, Admiral and Mrs. Arthur O. Robinson, Dr. and Mrs. Ray Brownell, Dr. Dickson Bell, Marty Heller and Doug Anderson, just to name a few.

There were a number of dinner parties. Col. Jack Black's party included Mmes. and Messrs. Bernard Dresser, Milton Kennedy and Jack Qualman. The guests at dinner with Mrs. Enith Bennett were Mmes. and Messrs. Charles Currey, Hal C. Wright, Clyde Hunter, Tom Rafter, Mrs. Chris Uhlenberg and Mrs. Kay Miller who was visiting the Hunters. Mr. and Mrs. Malcom Millard made a stunning couple on the dance floor. Others enjoying the music were Mmes. and Messrs. Verne Sidman, Howard Hellieson, Verne Larsen, Johnny Lamb and Ed Nichols.

Twelve Valley Boy Scouts have fun training at Pico Blanco camp

PICO BLANCO -- Twelve members of Carmel Valley Boy Scout Troop 127 have completed a seven-day training course at this Boy Scouts of America campground at the headwaters of the Little Sur River.

During the week of outdoor living, the scouts worked on requirements for merit badges and advancement in rank. Two completed work on merit badges for canoeing and camping, while others worked on marksmanship, archery and swimming.

"There were many troops at camp," reported Scout Don Parks, "all having a wonderful time with good comradeship and the spirit of good scouting."

Parks said food was "wonderful and counselors were friendly and willing to help in any way."

BIRTHDAY--96!

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Durham of Upper Circle attended a special birthday celebration last week in Petaluma when Oscar's father observed his 96th birthday.

MUELLER TO UC

Many friends in the Valley received the thick newsletter from former residents Bev and Klaus Mueller relating the exciting news of Klaus's appointment as senior lecturer, "guiding the activities of 75 teaching assistants and instructors in the Department of German at University of California at Berkeley. He will be in charge of the entire undergraduate German language curriculum.

The Muellers will be moving from their present location in Sacramento by the beginning of next month with their daughter Demi going to Sacramento State and Claudia attending University of Nevada at Reno.

Claudia Mueller, who has been acting as waterfront director for Jack Cowan's summer camp, recently saved the life of a baby who had strangled and seemed beyond help. She gave artificial respiration for 20 minutes until an ambulance arrived. The baby responded after the first ten minutes and the child was transferred to the hospital, under oxygen but very much alive. Claudia took her senior life saving under the Red Cross and will be presented with a national award commemorating the deed.

ANGELL'S HAVE VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Watts of Logansport, Indiana, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bob Angell, of Boronda Road. The Angells met them in San Francisco where they landed after a three-week vacation in Hawaii, and then the four drove to the Valley. After a short stay, they returned to their home to help their daughter, Sandy, prepare for her August 29th wedding.

NEW DOCTOR

Mrs. Bill Frisbie entertained neighbors and friends at coffee last Saturday to introduce Mrs. Mike Slobodjian (Eunice). Dr. and Mrs. Slobodjian have purchased the Frisbie house on Rancho Road and hope to move in by next week.

This is the first move for the family who has lived in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan. When asked how they happened to come here, Eunice said that her husband took the state board exams at Sacramento about three years ago, in case they might want to make a move. On their way home it was suggested that they detour through Carmel and they decided this was the place they wanted to live since they had a choice.

There are six little ones joining Mike and Eunice in their first move: Michael, who is 10, John, who is 9, the only girl, Donna, who is 7, Mark who is 6, George who is 3 and the baby Paul who is celebrating his first birthday next week.

Dr. Slobodjian will have his offices on Del Fino Place, next to those of Dr. Lifson's.

The ladies attending the coffee were Mmes. Jack Granoff, Robert Schwartz, Ben Viljoen, Earle Wilsey, Jack Hermanson, Larry Cummings, George Clifford, Milton Williams, Clyde Samara, and Mrs. Mona Frisbie, Bill's mother.

'Come Blow Your Horn' scores howling success

The dinner theatre in-the-round production of "Come Blow Your Horn," presented by the King Dodo Playhouse at the Brass Lantern Restaurant in San Juan Bautista, was a howling success at its opening last Wednesday night. The audience laughed and laughed and laughed at the clever dialogue of the play, which was well presented. The pace is fast and only in a few spots of background explanation did it lag.

"Come Blow Your Horn," by Neil Simon played 14 months on Broadway, opening in 1956. (Mr. Simon presently has two Broadway shows running concurrently.) This play which is a situation comedy, set in a bachelor apartment in New York, makes use of wonderfully clever dialogue which comes across well in this performance. The timing is excellent and J. Ivan Holm makes a marvelous debauched bachelor, Alan Baker. His young and naive brother, just turned 21, played by Dennis Clarke undergoes a masterful change under the tutelage of the older and more experienced Alan. Jaleen Holm in the role of Connie, who is hopefully trying to lure the bachelor into marriage, is attractive, clever, very believable...and you like her and hope she comes out all right. The beautiful but dumb blond, played by Claire Baker, and the mama and papa of the bachelors portrayed by Betty Jane Bennett and Tom Tripp, are done well, particularly since they are stereotyped characters used as foils.

Mr. and Mrs. Holm organized the King Dodo Playhouse about six years ago. They act as producers and directors and in the time since they started have produced 51 shows. Mrs. Holm directed the current show as well as playing a lead. They have specialized in dinner theatre, keeping their selections light and full of fun. They have been playing in various locations in San Jose, Los Altos, Santa Cruz, etc., but are hopefully looking forward to building their own spot next year.

BOB DUNN OF NEW YORK (right), president of the National Cartoonists Society, completes the bargain with local residents to hold the annual Jimmy Hatlo Golf tournament on the Monterey Peninsula each year. The "shake on it" came about in fun as Bob Barnes of Monterey (left), Marge Setchel of Monterey, Gus Arriola of Carmel and Fred Toole of Carmel Valley suggested that no matter where the convention was held, the golf play should be here.

FRANK ("Short Ribs") O'NEAL of Carmel (left), who received the Best Cartoon Strip award, Mrs. Charles McEwen of Carmel and editorial cartoonist, Bert Whitman of Stockton attentively watch the speakers table as Monterey mayor Minnie Coyle, proclaimed August 7 as Cartoonists Day in honor of their annual Western Convention.

Cartoonists live it up

National convention attracts many

The National Cartoonists Society's annual Western Convention began in San Francisco, but ended with a whirl of activities on the Monterey Peninsula.

Monterey mayor Minnie B. Coyle proclaimed Saturday, Aug. 7, as "Cartoonists Day" and presented an appropriate scroll to Bob Dunn, president of the national society, at their dinner Saturday at Carmel Valley Golf and Country Club.

Awards were presented during the San Francisco portion of the convention. Eldon Dedini of Carmel received the award for Best Magazine Cartoonist and Frank O'Neal, also of Carmel, received the Best Comic Strip award for "Short Ribs."

Charles Schultz, who draws "Peanuts," was named Outstanding Cartoonist of the Year.

Bob Barnes ("The Better Half"), Feg Murray ("Seein' Stars"), Gus Arriola ("Gordo"), Bill O'Malley ("The Little Nuns"), Fred Toole (representing "Dennis the Menace"), Jack Keith and Al Wiseman were among local cartoonists participating in the festivities.

The convention wound up with a golf tournament on Sunday at the golf club. The winner, Al Wiseman, was presented with the Jimmy Hatlo Memorial Trophy in honor of the late Pebble Beach cartoonist who created "They'll Do It Every Time."

'65 Jazz Festival

Liturgy set to jazz on slate for Monterey in late September

The West Coast premiere of St. Martin de Porres, liturgical music in the jazz idiom--an original composition by famed jazz pianist-composer, Mary Lou Williams--will be performed in the Sunday afternoon concert at this year's Monterey
Jazz Festival, September 17, 18 and 19.

The work was written by Miss
Williams to honor St. Martin de Porres, who was canonized by the Catholic Church in 1962.
The Catholic saint is considered the patron of social and interracial justice.

Also appearing Sunday afternoon, September 19, will be famed trumpet artist, Dizzy Gillespie with his quintet, and trumpet stylists Clark Terry and Henry "Red" Allen.

Other Sunday afternoon features are the premiere performances of new works commissioned by the Monterey Jazz Festival. They are "On the Road to Monterey" and "Angel City
Suite" written by Gil Fuller, who will lead the Monterey Jazz

Festival Orchestra in the initial performance of these compositions.

For ticket information write
P.O. Box "Jazz," Monterey, or telephone 373-2961.

Carmel artists elect Valleyite

Carmel Valley artist Eugene
Baker is chairman of the Selections and Hanging Committee for a new Carmel Art Association exhibition of painting and sculpture by artist members.

The show opened Thursday in the Association Gallery on Dolores Street and will run until Sept. 2.

'Jim' at Steinbeck

"Lord Jim," the much-discussed new film based on Joseph Conrad's classic novel of adventure in the Malay Archipelago, now showing at the Steinbeck Theatre, Monterey.
